

Call for Nominations for the Paul Tournier Prize 2024

The International College of Person Centered Medicine (ICPCM) has established the Paul Tournier Prize in order to promote Person Centered Medicine by honoring Paul Tournier's legacy, in cooperation with the Paul Tournier Association and the Paul Tournier family. The Prize involves the presentation of the Paul Tournier Lecture 2024 to be delivered on 24-26 March within the framework of the 16h Geneva Conference on Person Centered Medicine by the awardee who will receive a plaque celebrating the Prize. The winner of the Paul Tournier Prize will be selected by a jury composed of three representatives of the ICPCM Board (one being the President of the ICPCM who will chair the jury) and two representatives of the Paul Tournier Association. The general criteria for the selection of the Paul Tournier Prize winner are the following: a) High international stature in the field of Person Centered Medicine, broadly considered, b) Publication of important books or papers in the field of Person Centered Medicine, broadly considered, c) Ability and willingness to deliver an inspiring Prize lecture in the course of a 16th Geneva Conference on PCM on 24-26 March 2024, d) Not being a member of the Board of the ICPCM nor of the Paul Tournier Association. Nominations for the Paul Tournier Prize 2024 written by persons different from the nominees are open until 15 February 2024 by e-mail addressed to the International College of Person Centered Medicine at ICPCMsecretariat@aol.com.
